Testimonials

"It can be a great 'Make in India' product. For first time, the subjective knowledge of Nadi has been converted into objective, quantitative and measurable data."

Padmashree
Dr. H. R. Nagendra

"It sounds like Nadi Tarangini is not only a powerful diagnostic support for Vaidyas but it can also help enhance patient satisfaction and belief in Ayurveda."

Padmashree
Vaidya Rajesh Kothecha

"If highly subjective diagnostic tool can be translated into the technological format, it will be an adaptable and objective diagnostic support for physicians."
